Having broad expertise in industry and big picture thinking; paying attention to details with adaptive perfectionism; open minded and problem solving, approachable and helpful team player.

Over the past few years I've been working as a software developer, and data analyst consultant; now looking for a remote or flexible schedule position of Java developer to get deeper in technologies I enjoy.

Experience

Since 2017 – Software consultant and Java developer focused on Spring framework based projects.

May 2015 – Dec 2017. Software and data analyst at Ukrainian Surveying Expertise (Ukrservex): surveying data estimation, statistical modeling and visualization, industry specific software adoption and development (R and Java).

Aug 2012 – May 2015. Quantitative analyst in projects evaluation: application of mathematical and statistical methods to financial and risk management; tracking trends and patterns in markets; modeling and visualization with R.

Previously worked as a system administrator, software developer and project manager (C, VB, Visual FoxPro, dBase, Microsoft Office Stack), ran my own business.

A team player, I have experience working on-site and in distributed teams using agile technologies, scrum and kanban.
